Buffalo Looks to Build on 9-Win Campaign in 2025

The University at Buffalo football team had one of the best seasons in program history under the direction of first-year head coach Pete Lembo in 2024. The Bulls went 9-4 and defeated Liberty in the Bahamas Bowl. It was the most wins ever by a first-year head coach at Buffalo.

The Bulls return 14 starters, eight of which are on defense, from last season and look to build on Lembo's impressive inaugural campaign.

Among the returning starters, seven were named All-MAC, including linebackers Red Murdock (first team) and Dion Crawford (third team) along with edge Kobe Stewart (second team), running back Al-Jay Henderson (third team), wide receiver Victor Snow (third team) and offensive linemen Trevor Brock (third) and Tyler Doty (third).

Here is a position-by-position breakdown as the Bulls enter spring drills.

QUARTERBACKS

With the graduation of C.J. Ogbonna who started all 13 games a season ago, Buffalo will have a new starting quarterback in 2025. The Bulls have five quarterbacks on the roster who will battle it out for the starting role.

Gunnar Gray is the only returning quarterback who has attempted a pass for the Bulls in his career. The redshirt-senior appeared in four games last season and completed 4-of-11 passes for 41 yards.

Mason Cumbie and Anthony Poilcare are both in their third year with the program and continue to improve.

The Bulls did dip into the transfer portal in the offseason, bring Kansas State transfer Ta'Quan Roberson into the program. The sixth-year quarterback also played at Penn State and UConn over his career. He saw most of his action at UConn where he threw for 2,075 yards and 12 touchdowns and added 120 yards on the ground and two scores in 2023.

Freshman Jason Wright enrolled in January after a standout career as a dual-threat quarterback at Lloyd C. Bird High School in Virginia.

RUNNING BACKS

The running back group is led by Al-Jay Henderson who is coming off a breakout season for the Bulls. The senior back rushed for 1,078 yards in 2025, the 10th best single-season effort in program history. He added a team-best nine touchdowns while averaging 5.3 yards per carry.

Redshirt-sophomore Lamar Sperling looks to have a breakout season of his own after rushing for 150 yards and a touchdown on 39 carries a season ago.

Messiah Burch began his career as a wide receiver before making the move to running back in 2024. That move paid off as he proved to be a spark in the running game. Burch rushed for 153 yards on 29 carries (5.3 ypc) and scored two touchdowns while adding nine receptions for 99 yards.

Terrance Shelton saw action in all 13 games as a true freshman in 2024 and earned the start at UConn. He had 23 carries for 88 yards on the season and was also the Bulls leading kick returner.

James McNeil should factor into the mix at running back as well after redshirting as a freshman last season. Following a strong preseason camp in 2024, McNeil missed the majority of the season with an injury. He did see action in the Bahamas Bowl and had two carries for 15 yards.

True freshman Nino Hill enrolled in January and will look to make an immediate impact.

Walk-on Gabe Goins rounds out the running back corps.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Victor Snow leads the wide receiver group after earning All-MAC honors a season ago. The redshirt-junior was one of the best stories on the 2024 team. Snow led the Bulls with 55 receptions for 651 yards and six touchdowns - all team highs. Originally a walk-on, he was awarded a scholarship after the final game of the regular season.

Nik McMillan was off to a strong start to the 2024 campaign before suffering a season-ending injury in the second game. He had five receptions for 76 yards and a touchdown in the opener, before the injury. McMillan is back healthy and should be one of UB's top targets.
At 6-6, Chance Morrow is the tallest receiver on the UB roster. He is in his third season with the Bulls after transferring from Louisville. He had four catches for 59 yards a season ago.

HENDERSON

Qua Sanders is also in his third season with the Bulls. He had three receptions for 43 yards last year.

Patrick Clacks III redshirted last season as a freshman but did appear in five games. He did not register a catch.

Mark-Anthony Scott is a redshirt-junior who is making the move to wide receiving after beginning his career at running back.

Redshirt-junior Jeremy Yancey appeared in eight games a season ago, primarily on special teams.

Other receivers looking to step up after redshirt last season include Bobby Mays, Terrell Richards, Tyrell Simmons, Jeremiah Watkins and Shey Williams.

Freshman Dwayne Early enrolled at UB in January after a standout career at Springfield Central High School in Massachusetts.

Jasaiah Gathings is a transfer from UConn who began his career at Akron. He had 32 catches for 307 yards and a touchdown with the Huskies last season.

True freshmen Phillip Folmar and Alvin Jones will also look to make an immediate impact.

TIGHT ENDS

Evan King is in his second season after transferring from Hampton. He played in 11 games in 2024 and made one start. He had two catches for 15 yards on the season.

Ryan Daly is in his third season at UB. The redshirt-junior appeared in 11 games last year and recorded a 13-yard reception.

Redshirt-sophomore Mitch Viviano appeared in five games last season.

Nick Leonard is in his second season with the program and Liam Hamilton has made the move to tight end from offensive line.

True freshman Michael Gelatko will add to the tight end depth.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The Bulls return three starters on the offensive line, including two who were All-MAC selections.

Guard Tyler Doty returns after earning All-MAC honors each of the last two seasons. He has started 35 games over his career.

Trevor Brock was also an All-MAC Third Team selection in 2024. Entering his third season with the team, the Iowa Western transfer has made 20 starts for the Bulls.

Henry Tabansi started all 13 games at left tackle in 2024, his second season with the Bulls. He will likely return to his starting role in 2025.

Other offensive linemen who will challenge for starting roles after seeing game action in their careers are redshirt-sophomore Gabriel Arena who played in nine games in 2024 and redshirt-junior Alex Heininger who saw action in four games last season.

The Bulls will have a new starting center in 2024 with the graduation of Dom Polizzi who started every game last season. Graduate transfer Jake Timm will likely gain the starting nod after earning all-conference honors at LIU.

James Carrington III appeared in 11 games last season as an offensive lineman in special teams formations.

Also looking to play a more prominent role in 2025 is Chayce Chadwick.

In addition, the Bulls have a group of young linemen who redshirted as freshmen last season in Jackson Bellamy, Paul Clark, Val Kondratenko and Ahmann Thomas.

Jacob Merritt, a transfer from Michigan State, will likely factor into the o-line rotation.

True freshman Jackson Davenport joins the Bulls as well.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Second-team All-MAC selection Kobe Stewart returns at edge after leading the Mid-American Conference in sacks with 9.5 in 2024. He was one sack shy of Khalil Mack's single-season record for sacks in UB's FBS era.

Malin White is also in his second season at UB after transferring from Cornell. He had 20 tackles and a sack last season.

Jacari Bennett redshirted as a freshman last season but did appear in five games. He registered two tackles and a tackle for loss.

Demetrius Ballard also redshirted as a freshman last season but did play in two games.

PETE LEMBO

HEAD COACH
GEORGETOWN, 1992
SECOND SEASON

Pete Lembo was named the 28th head coach of the University at Buffalo football program on January 21, 2024.

Lembo had the most successful debut season of any head coach in UB Football history in 2024 when he led the Bulls to a 9-4 overall record and 6-2 mark in Mid-American Conference play. The nine wins tied for the second most in school history and were the most by a first-year head coach at UB.

He led Buffalo to its fourth bowl win in program history, defeating Liberty, 26-7, in the Bahamas Bowl. It capped a stellar finish to the season that saw the Bulls win their final five games of the year for the first time since 1959.

UB's six-win improvement from 2023 tied for the fourth best turnaround in the nation.

The signature win for the Bulls in 2024 was a 23-20 overtime victory over 23rd-ranked Northern Illinois. It was Buffalo's second ever win over a nationally ranked team.

Buffalo had 10 players named All-MAC, including 2024 MAC Defensive Player of the Year Shaun Dolac. The standout linebacker was also UB football's first ever Consensus All-American.

Under Lembo, the Bulls had their best semester in the classroom. The team's combined 3.18 grade point average was the highest in program history.

A coaching veteran of over 30 years, Lembo has had successful stints as head coach of three other programs. From 2001-15, he served as head coach at Lehigh, Elon and Ball State. He amassed a 112–65 career record, including a 79–36 record in ten seasons at the FCS level, making him one of the winningest coaches in the history of that classification.

In five years as head coach at Lehigh, Lembo had a record of 44-14. He is the winningest head coach in the program's history with a .759 winning percentage. His conference record of 26-7 (.788) ranks third among all Patriot League coaches in terms of winning percentage. He led the Mountain Hawks to two Patriot League titles and two appearances in the FCS playoffs. He was named the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year and the Patriot League Coach of the Year in 2001 after leading Lehigh to an 11-1 record and as high as No. 2 in the national polls – the highest ranking the program's history.

LEMBO COACHING EXPERIENCE

2024-	Buffalo (Head Coach)
2021-23	South Carolina (Assoc. HC/Special Teams Coord.)
2019-20	Memphis (Assoc. HC/Special Teams Coord.)
2018	Rice (Assoc. HC/Special Teams Coord.)
2016-17	Maryland (Assoc. HC/Special Teams/Tight Ends)
2011-15	Ball State (Head Coach)
2006-10	Elon (Head Coach)

1994-96	Dartmouth (Tight Ends)
1992-93	Albany (Graduate Assistant)

Beginning in 2006, Lembo spent five seasons as the head coach at Elon. He resurrected a program that went 14-42 in the five seasons prior to his arrival. From 2006-10, the Phoenix had a record of 35-22. He was named the Southern Conference Coach of the Year in 2007 and in 2009 led Elon to a record of 9-3, including a 7-1 mark in conference play. The Phoenix qualified for the FCS playoffs for the first time in program history that season. Elon enjoyed winning seasons in Southern Conference play all five years he served as head coach, something the program hadn't achieved during an 11-year affiliation with the conference. His Elon teams set over 120 NCAA, Southern Conference and school records.

No stranger to the Mid-American Conference, Lembo served as head coach at Ball State from 2011-15. Like his previous stops, Lembo enjoyed immediate success. He became the first coach in Ball State history to win 30 games over his first four seasons at the helm. The Cardinals went 9-4 (6-2 in the MAC) in 2012 and 10-3 (7-1 in the MAC) in 2013. The combined 19 wins over those two seasons tied the program record for wins over a two-year span. He led Ball State to the 2012 Beef 'O' Brady Bowl and the 2013 GoDaddy Bowl, marking just the second time in 90 years over Ball State football the program played in bowl games in consecutive years.

Under Lembo's watch, the Cardinals set more than 60 school records, including single-season records for points (501), total offense (6,199 yards), passing yards (4,214), touchdown passes (35) and total touchdowns (64) in 2013.

Since leaving Ball State following the 2015 campaign, Lembo enjoyed significant success as a special teams coordinator at the Power Five level. He spent the past three seasons as associate head coach and special teams coordinator at South Carolina. He was named a Broyles Award Assistant Coach of the Year Semifinalist, a FootballScoop Special Teams Coach of the Year Finalist and earned Phil Steele's Special Teams Coach of the Year accolades in 2022 after the Gamecock special teams had arguably their best season on record.

South Carolina earned the No. 1 spot in ESPN's special teams efficiency ranking after finishing fourth in the country in punt returns (16.6), fifth in kickoff returns (25.1), seventh in net punting (42.8), 23rd in opponent kickoff returns (17.3) and 27th in opponent punt returns (4.6). During his three-year run in Columbia, South Carolina special teams units blocked 14 kicks after recording eight blocks over the previous five years (2016-20) combined.

Lembo had similar success as assistant head coach and special teams coordinator at Memphis in 2019 and 2020. He helped lead the Tigers to a 12-win season in 2019 and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. His unit finished second in ESPN's Special Teams Efficiency Rankings in 2019 and sixth in the FBS in the overall special teams rankings compiled by the data analysts at Football Outsiders.

Prior to Memphis, Lembo served as assistant head coach and special teams coordinator at Rice (2018) and Maryland (2016-17). Both programs excelled in special teams under Lembo's tutelage. In his two seasons at Maryland, the Terps tied for fifth nationally with nine blocked kicks. While at Rice, the Owls ranked fifth in the FBS with just 16.12 kickoff return yards allowed.

A native of Staten Island, NY, Lembo began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Albany in 1992. He went on to coach tight ends at Dartmouth from 1994-96 and serve as offensive coordinator at Hampden-Sydney in 1997.

Lembo, a 1992 graduate of Georgetown University, was a four-year starter on the Hoyas' offensive line and served as team captain in 1991. He is married to the former Jenifer Kochis. The couple has three children – Sophia, A.J. and Victoria.

DAVE PATENAUDE

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS
CENTRAL CONNECTICUT STATE '90
SECOND SEASON AT BUFFALO

Dave Patenaude enters his second season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after engineering a tremendous offensive turnaround during the 2024 season.

The Bulls offense got better as the 2024 season progressed and was especially impressive in Mid-American Conference play. Buffalo was the top-scoring offense in MAC games, averaging 35.3 points per game. The Bulls averaged 43 points over the final four games of the regular season to lead all of FBS.

As a quarterbacks coach, he was a key figure in the development of C.J. Ogbonna. In 2020, Patenaude started three true freshmen on offense, including at quarterback, and saw an improvement of more than 100 yards per game in total offense from the previous season. Also in 2020, the offense had four-straight 400-yards games of total offense to begin the year for the first time since 2011.

Prior to joining Georgia Tech, Patenaude was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Temple from 2017-18. In his two years at Temple, the Owls had two of its top three single-season passing totals in school history and were the 23rd ranked scoring offense in the country in 2018.

After a brief stint at Old Dominion in 2022 before having to step away for personal reasons, Patenaude most recently served as an offensive analyst at Virgina in 2023.

Patenaude was a three-year starter at quarterback and free safety at Central Connecticut State. He graduated from CCSU in 1990 and earned a master's from Springfield in 1993.

RON WHITCOMB

TIGHT ENDS/RECRUITING COORDINATOR
MAINE '06
FIFTH SEASON AT BUFFALO

Ron Whitcomb begins his fifth season on the coaching staff at Buffalo. Whitcomb, who has coached tight ends and quarterbacks over his career at UB, serves as tight ends coach under coach Lembo. He also serves as recruiting coordinator.

In 2024, the Bulls went 9-4 and defeated Liberty in the Bahamas Bowl.

The tight ends played a major role in blocking for Buffalo's successful rushing attack in 2024. The Bulls finished with 2,457 yards on the ground, fifth most in program history for a single season.

Jake Orlando led UB tight ends with 11 catches for 101 yards and two touchdowns.

In 2022, tight ends combined for 32 receptions for 300 yards on the season, led by Robbie Mangas who had 16 catches for 141 yards - the most receptions by a UB tight end since 2019.

Tight ends Trevor Borland and Nicholas Fronczak were both named to the Academic All-MAC team.

He helped lead the Bulls to a victory over Georgia Southern in the Camellia Bowl for UB's third bowl win in program history.

Under Whitcomb in 2021, there was an increase in productivity from the tight end position over the previous two seasons. Tight ends accounted for 27 receptions for 276 yards and three touchdowns in 2021 - their highest output since the 2018 campaign.

Tight ends Jake Molinich and Trevor Borland were both named to the Academic All-MAC team.

Whitcomb began his career at UB in 2020 as the team's scouting coordinator and offensive analyst. The Rochester native spent the previous 12 seasons as quarterbacks coach at Old Dominion.

Whitcomb guided quarterback Blake LaRussa to a 3,000-yard season that saw the junior signal-caller finish No. 14 in FBS with 274.1 passing yards per game. That number jumps to 300 yards per game when taking out the two games where he played sparingly. In ODU's 49-35 stunner over No. 13 Virginia Tech, LaRussa passed for 495-yards and four touchdowns. The 495-yards was a C-USA high in 2018 and the second most ever allowed by a Tech defense. LaRussa earned multiple National Player of the Week awards and was named C-USA Player of the Week. LaRussa finished second in C-USA with 274.1 yards per game and led league quarterbacks with six, 300-yard passing games.

LaRussa was the second quarterback in ODU history to throw for 3,000 yards in a single-season, throwing for 3,015, and joining current NFL QB Taylor Heinicke in that regard. LaRussa earned C-USA honorable mention honors, becoming the third ODU quarterback in the Monarchs' five years in the league to earn All-C-USA honors, joining Heinicke and David Washington.

A year after graduating senior quarterback David Washington, the ODU offense was taken over by true freshman Steven Williams in 2017. Williams' first career start came at Virginia Tech and the improvement each week from the then 17-year old was noticeable. In the final four games of the year, Williams completed 68 percent of his passes for 664 yards, two touchdowns and no turnovers, while rushing for 101 yards and two more touchdowns. Williams was named to the Conference USA All-Freshman Team.

Whitcomb groomed quarterback David Washington to the second-best touchdown to interception ratio in the country in 2016 to help ODU to a 10-3 overall record and victory in the Popeyes Bahamas Bowl. Washington passed for 2,836 yards and 31 touchdowns in his first full season as a starter, after playing wide receiver most of the previous two seasons.

Whitcomb guided current Washington Football player Taylor Heinicke to a tremendous four-year career as 2015 was the first time since 2011 that Heinicke was not behind center. Shuler Bentley and David Washington split the QB duties, combining to complete 234-for-432 for 2,2587 yards and 20 touchdowns. Bentley started the year at quarterback and led a come-from-behind win at Eastern Michigan in the opener and a win over Norfolk State before Washington came in vs. Charlotte for the second series, going 25-of-43 for 365 yards and four touchdowns for a dramatic 37-34 win over the 49ers. Washington led ODU to wins over UTSA and UTEP before suffering a season-ending injury at Southern Miss.

Whitcomb guided four-year starting quarterback Taylor Heinicke to one of the best statistical careers of any Division I quarterback ever. Heinicke ranks third all-time among FBS quarterbacks in total yards of offense with 16,279 and sixth in career passing yards with 14,959. Heinicke's 132 career touchdown tosses is fourth most all-time, just two behind Texas Tech's Graham Harrell for third place.

In 2012, the Monarchs led the FCS in scoring offense with 45.15 points per game, passing offense at 393.85 and total offense with 548.23 yards per game. Whitcomb helped lead Taylor Heinicke to the most prolific season by a quarterback in FCS history. Heinicke led the nation in passing yards, passing yards per game, touchdown passes, total TD's, total offense and points responsible for. Heinicke set FCS single-season record for passing yards and completions. Heinicke threw for 5,076 passing yards surpassing Steve McNair's record of 4,863 he set for Alcorn State in 1994. Heinicke's 398 completions broke Brett Gordon's mark of 385 he set in 2002 for Villanova. Heinicke won the Walter Payton Award given to the Best Player in the FCS, becoming just the second sophomore ever to win the award. The 2012 season also saw Heinicke earn CAA Offensive Player of the Year honors and first-team All-CAA honors. He received First-Team All-America honors by seven organizations and won the Dudley Award for the best Division I Player in the state of Virginia.

Under Whitcomb's watch, the Monarchs had a two-time Walter Payton Watch List member in Thomas DeMarco in 2010 and 2011 and the College Football Performance Awards FCS National Performer of the Year, Jerry Rice Award Runner-Up, and the Payton Award Winner in Heinicke.

Before joining the Old Dominion staff, Whitcomb was a four-year starter at the University of Maine from 2003-2006.

Whitcomb, departed as the Black Bears' all-time leader in completions (755), total offense (8,801) and touchdown passes (68). His 8,183 passing yards ranked second, as did his .592 completion percentage. One of three senior captains at Maine in 2006, Whitcomb was named the Atlantic-10 and Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Rookie of the Year as a redshirt freshman after passing for 2,428 yards and 21 touchdowns. The passing yardage was the most by a freshman in Atlantic-10 history and he also established a new school record with touchdown passes in 11 straight games.

A standout off the field as well, Whitcomb was honored as the 2006-07 Atlantic-10 Student-Athlete of the Year. He earned his B.S. in education from Maine in 2006 and a M.S. Ed. in educational leadership at Old Dominion University in 2009.

For the last three seasons, Whitcomb has participated in the annual Lauren's First and Goal Football Camp at Lafayette College. The one-day clinic features nearly 275 college coaches who volunteer their time to teach aspiring football players the in-and-outs of the game and raise money for Lauren's First and Goal, a charitable organization created to support pediatric brain tumor research and support local pediatric cancer services.

In addition, UB ranked fifth in the MAC in rushing - averaging 195.5 yards per game. The line blocked for running back Dylan McDufie who rushed for 1,049 yards - the 10th best single-sesaon effort in program history.

Two starters on the offensive line were named to the All-MAC team. Left tackle Jake Fuzak was named to the second team and guard Jack Klenk was named to the third team. In addition, five members of the offensive line were named Academic All-MAC.

Stansfield came to UB after spending the previous five seasons as run game coordinator and offensive line/tight ends coach at Duquesne. A former player and coach at Duquesne, he returned to his alma mater after serving as offensive coordinator at Waynesburg for four seasons.

Duquesne, which has ranked among the Top 50 nationally in rushing offense in each of the past five seasons, has seen five backs combine to post 33 100-yard games since Stansfield's return to The Bluff.

Last season, running back A.J. Hines capped his standout career becoming the program's all-time leading rusher with 4,629 career rushing yards. The running back earned his fourth consecutive All-NEC award, sharing the backfield with fellow All-NEC selection Mark Allen. The pair became the first two running backs to garner All-NEC honors in the same season since the Dukes joined the conference in 2008.

A big part of the the Duquesne duo's success running the ball was the Dukes' offensive line, keyed by All-NEC picks Sterling Jenkins and Gabe Spurlock. Stansfield and the Duquesne O-line ranked 26th in the country with the fewest sacks allowed at 1.55 per game.

In 2018, Stansfield and the Dukes' running game enjoyed a standout campaign which saw Duquesne claim its fifth NEC crown, as the Dukes earned their second Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Playoff berth and won their first FCS Playoff contest in program history.

Running back A.J. Hines garnered NEC Offensive Player of the Year honors and was recognized as a finalist for the STATS FCS Walter Payton Award for the top offensive player at the FCS level. He closed out the season third in the country in rushing yards and sixth in the nation in rushing touchdowns, tallying a program-record six-straight 100-yard rushing performances during a six-game winning streak for Duquesne.

Hines - who has earned three straight First Team All-NEC nods with three 1,000-yard seasons in a row - enters his senior season in 2019 as the FCS active leader in career rushing yards and rushing touchdowns.

Stansfield also coached a pair of All-NEC performers on the offensive line in Alex Conley and Matt Fitzpatrick, who helped pave the way for Hines' 20 100-yard rushing games over the last three seasons.

Additionally under Stansfield's guidance, tight end Stew Allen finished with five touchdown receptions on the season.

In 2017, the Dukes paced the NEC in rushing offense (198.5 ypg.) keyed by Hines, who posted his second consecutive 1,000-yard season.

In 2016, Hines ran for 100 yards seven times on his way to winning the STATS FCS Jerry Rice Award.

Prior to returning to Duquesne, Stansfield guided Waynesburg's offense to new heights, as the team averaged over 400 yards per game in 2014. In 2013, Waynesburg averaged 387.3 yards per game, including a 283.8 ypg. through the air. The 2012 offense featured a physical running attack that averaged a conference-best 201.9 yards per game while allowing just five quarterback sacks all season.

Prior to his appointment at Waynesburg, Stansfield was Duquesne's running backs coach and run game coordinator from 2009-11.

In 2011, Duquesne (9-2) rushed for an average of 212.8 yards per game - a mark that led the NEC and ranked 15th nationally. Then-junior Larry McCoy spearheaded the ground game with 1,381 yards. McCoy's 117.4 yards rushing per game ranked 11th nationally.

Prior to his stint at Duquesne, Stansfield spent one year (2008) at Howard University, where he worked with the school's defensive line.

Stansfield played center for Duquesne from 2003-07, where he was a member of five MAAC championship teams. The Meadville native, who served as a team captain as a senior, earned all-MAAC honors in 2006 & 2007. He was a Don Hansen honorable mention FCS Mid-Major All-American in 2006.

Stansfield graduated from Duquesne in 2007 with a degree in accounting. He added an MBA from his alma mater in 2010 and completed a second master's degree in education at Waynesburg in 2015.

Stansfield and his wife, Jamie, have two sons, Jack and Luke.

BUFFALO 30, LAFAYETTE 13

AUG. 29, 2024 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The Pete Lembo era of University at Buffalo football began on Thursday night with a 30-13 victory over Lafayette at UB Stadium. The Bulls jumped out to a 16-0 lead and never looked back, defeating a Leopard squad that is the preseason favorite to win the Patriot League.

Linebacker Shaun Dolac, back after missing the majority of last season with an injury, looked every bit the first-team All-MAC linebacker he was in 2022. He finished with 11 tackles, two tackles for loss and an interception, leading a defense that was dominant in the game.

The Bulls allowed only 43 yards of rushing to Lafayette and held preseason All-American Jamar Curtis to just 12 yards on 14 carries. Jalen McNair and Dolac both had interceptions in the game and edge Kobe Stewart had two of UB's three sacks on the night.

C.J. Ogbonna made his first career start for the Bulls at quarterback and looked comfortable running the offense. He threw for 195 yards and two touchdowns, connecting with Nik McMillan on a 31-yard touchdown and Taji Johnson on a 32-yard score. McMillan led the Bulls with five receptions for 76 yards in the game.

Al-Jay Henderson earned the start at running back and rushed for 37 yards and an 11-yard touchdown to open the scoring. Jacqez Barksdale was inserted in the lineup in the second half and was a real spark for the running game. He had 14 carries for 99 yard and a 19-yard touchdown to ice the game for the Bulls. The senior running back was a wrecking ball, averaging 7.1 yards per carry.

Along with Dolac, fellow linebacker Red Murdock had a strong game with seven tackles and a tackle for loss. In total, the Bulls had 11 tackles for loss in the game with nine different Bulls registering at least one TFL.

#9 MISSOURI 38, BUFFALO 0

SEPT. 7, 2024 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • COLUMBIA, MO

COLUMBIA, MO – The ninth-ranked Missouri Tigers were too much for the University at Buffalo football team on Saturday night as the Tigers defeated the Bulls, 38-0, before a sold-out crowd at Memorial Stadium. It was Missouri's second-straight shutout to start the season.

Despite the lopsided score, the Bulls put up a tremendous fight, especially on the defensive side of the ball. UB limited the Tigers' high-powered offense to only two plays of over 30 yards. UB held All-SEC wide-receiver Luther Burden to just three receptions for 15 yards.

Linebacker Shaun Dolac led the defensive effort with a career-high 16 tackles and a tackle for loss. Cornerback Marquis Cooper had the best game of his UB career with a career-high 12 tackles. Linebacker Red Murdock also had a career high in tackles with 10 and added 2.5 tackles for loss. Cornerback Charles McCartherens had an interception and a pass breakup in the game.

The stout and speedy Missouri defense stymied the Buffalo offense. However, like last week against Lafayette, running back Jacqez Barksdale proved to be a spark in the running game. The Kansas native rushed for 67 yards on 15 carries, averaging 4.5 yard per carry. Victor Snow was UB's top receiver with a career-best four catches for 41 yards.

The Bulls only trailed 3-0 after the first quarter, before the Tigers were able to break open the game with three second-quarter touchdowns to lead 24-0 at the half. UB held Missouri to just seven points for much of the second half, until the Tigers scored once more in the game's closing seconds for the final 38-0 advantage.

BUFFALO 34, MASSACHUSETTS 3

SEPT. 7, 2024 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo football team scored 24 second-half points to defeat UMass, 34-3, on a sunny and hot Saturday afternoon at UB Stadium. Once again, the defense shined, keeping the Minutemen out of the endzone.

The Bulls marched right down the field and scored on their first possession of the game when C.J. Ogbonna connected with J.J. Jenkins for a 40-yard touchdown pass to give UB an early 7-0 lead. It would prove to be all the points the Bulls needed as the defense was in shutdown mode after that.

Shaun Dolac had 14 of his career-high 16 tackles in the first half to set the tone. He added a sack and two tackles for loss. Fellow linebacker Red Murdock had a career-high 12 tackles and added a career-best three tackles for loss and a sack.

Cornerback Marquis Cooper had another standout performance, finishing with eight tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss and returned his first career interception 100 yards for a touchdown. It was the longest interception return in program history, a record that stood for nearly 60 years.

All told, the Bulls had a season-high 12 tackles for loss in the game.

Offensively, Ogbonna had a solid game under center, finishing 14-of-22 for 185 yards and a touchdown and adding an eight-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. He hooked up with nine different receivers in the game. The Bulls were able to connect on big plays as Jenkins, Victor Snow and Taji Johnson all had receptions of 30+ yards.

Lamar Sperling led the rushing attack with the best game of his young career. The redshirt-freshman rushed for 86 yards on 16 carries and scored on a 1-yard run in the fourth quarter for his first career touchdown.

BUFFALO 23, #23 NORTHERN ILLINOIS 20 OT

SEPT. 21, 2024 • HUSKIE STADIUM • DEKALB, IL

DEKALB, IL – The University at Buffalo football team went on the road and upset 23rd-ranked Northern Illinois, 23-20, at Huskie Stadium on a scorching Saturday afternoon to open Mid-American Conference play. It was the Bulls second win over a ranked opponent in program history.

Led by linebacker Shaun Dolac, the defense kept the Bulls in the game early until the offense got its footing. The Western New York native had one of the greatest games in program history, finishing with a career-high 19 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss and a game-changing interception.

The Bulls trailed 14-3 at the half but quickly got back in the game early in the third quarter when C.J. Ogbonna connected with Victor Snow on a 46-yard touchdown pass that Snow miraculously caught between two defenders.

Following a field goal that extended the NIU lead to 17-10 early in the fourth quarter, Al-Jay Henderson busted a run up the middle for a 36-yard touchdown to tie the game, 17-17.

The Huskies marched down the field looking to regain the lead when Dolac flipped the script by intercepting an Ethan Hampton pass and returning it 53 yards to the NIU 20.

Upton Bellenfant gave the Bulls their first lead of the game, 20-17, on a 42-yard field goal with 3:28 left.

Northern Illinois took the ensuing kickoff and drove all the way down to the UB 10-yard line in the closing seconds, but the UB defense didn't break and held the Huskies to a field goal and the game went to overtime.

NIU got the ball first in OT and had to settle for a field goal attempt. Marquis Cooper sprinted off the edge and was able to block the attempt, giving the ball back to the Bulls with a chance to win.

After three run plays, Bellenfant drilled a 37-yard field goal, his third of the game, to secure the walk-off win for the Bulls.

The win was just the second ever for the Bulls at Huskie Stadium and it was the first time UB defeated a ranked opponent on the road.

It was another standout performance by the defense as they totaled 10 tackles for loss. Red Murdock tied his career high with 12 tackles and added 1.5 tackles for loss. Jalen McNair had a career-best eight tackles in the game.

Offensively, Ogbonna threw for 107 yards and a touchdown. His top target was Snow who finished with three catches for 72 yards and a score. Henderson was UB's top rusher with 56 yards on 11 carries and a touchdown.

The Bulls improved to 3-1 for the first time since 2020 and just the third time in their FBS era.

BUFFALO 30, TOLEDO 15

OCT. 12, 2024 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – Behind a season-high 230 yards rushing and a strong defensive effort, the University at Buffalo football team defeated Toledo, 30-15, at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The win improved the Bulls to 4-2 overall and 2-0 in Mid-American Conference play.

The high-powered Rockets entered the game as the MAC's top ranked offense. However, UB's defense held Toledo to just 46 yards rushing on 25 carries. The dynamic linebacker duo of Shaun Dolac and Red Murdock once again led the way with 15 and 11 tackles, respectively.

Toledo's defense was also ranked first in the MAC entering today's contest, but that didn't deter the Bulls as they had one of their best offensive performances of the season, especially on the ground. Al-Jay Henderson led the way with a career-best 142 yards on 18 carries. Messiah Burch and Terrance Shelton, Jr. were utilized more in the game and each came up with big plays to help the effort.

Buffalo struck first in the game, utilizing an 8-play, 81-yard drive on its second possession, which included a 30-yard pass to Burch and a 23-yard run by Henderson. Victor Snow took a jet sweep around the end for a 2-yard touchdown to give UB a 7-0 lead.

The score remained 7-0 until early in the third quarter when the Bulls took the second-half kickoff and drove 81 yards on 10 plays and C.J. Ogbonna connected with tight end Jake Orlando for a 2-yard touchdown.

UB seized control of the game late in the third quarter when Kobe Stewart got a strip sack of Toledo quarterback Tucker Gleason deep in UB territory and Antonio Colclough pounced on the ball at the 2-yard line. One play later, Ogbonna ran it in to increase the UB lead to 21-0.

Toledo scored on its next drive to cut the lead to 14. But after Tadd Barr made a heads-up play to recover a surprise onside kick attempt, UB marched right down the field and scored again on another short Ogbonna run to go up, 27-7.

Caleb Tate forced a fumble on the ensuing kick return that was recovered by Shelton. The Bulls capitalized with a 33-yard field goal off the foot of Upton Bellenfant to go ahead, 30-7, with 9:13 left in the fourth quarter.

Toledo scored to cut the lead to 30-15 and were driving again in the final minutes, but a fourth-down sack by Colclough sealed the win for UB.

Ogbonna threw for 127 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 26 yards and two more scores in the game. Seven different Bulls had receptions on the day, led by Snow's four catches for 27 yards.

The defense seemed to confuse the Rockets all afternoon. Toledo was just 4-of-16 on third downs and 2-of-5 on fourth down conversions.

WESTERN MICHIGAN 48, BUFFALO 41

OCT. 19, 2024 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo football team dropped a shootout to Western Michigan, 48-41, at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon. It was the Bulls' first conference loss of the season.

The loss spoiled UB's best offensive performance of the season. The Bulls totaled a season-high 551 yards of total offense. Quarterback C.J. Ogbonna competed 22-of-34 passes for a career-high 309 yards and two touchdowns in the game. He had touchdowns passes to Victor Snow and Taji Johnson.

Snow had his best game as a Bull, hauling in seven receptions for 84 yards and a touchdown and added a 12-yard touchdown run. Johnson also had a career-best five catches for 50 yards and a score.

For the second straight game, Buffalo rushed for over 230 yards as a team, totaling a season-best 242 yards. Al-Jay Henderson led the way with 97 yards on the ground, including a 68-yard score. Messiah Burch added 58 yards rushing and his first career touchdown.

Buffalo capitalized on an early Western Michigan fumble to take a 7-0 lead just 82 seconds into the game on a seven-yard touchdown run by Burch. Following a Bronco touchdown, Upton Bellenfant made a 26-yard field goal to give the Bulls a 10-7 lead after one quarter of play.

Western Michigan scored 21 unanswered points in the second quarter to take a 28-10 lead and seize control of the game. A 26-yard touchdown pass from Ogbonna to Snow cut the deficit to 28-17 at the half.

The Broncos extended their lead to 35-17 in the third quarter before the Bulls made a charge. Ogbonna found Johnson over the middle for an 11-yard touchdown in the third quarter and then on the first play of the fourth quarter, Snow took an end-around 12 yards for a touchdown to cut the Western Michigan lead to 35-30.

Trailing 38-30, early in the fourth quarter, Henderson ripped off a 68-yard touchdown run and then Ogbonna found Chance Morrow in the back of the endzone for the two-point conversion to tie the game, 38-38.

A big Western Michigan kick return set up a short field leading to a field goal to give the lead right back to the Broncos. Western Michigan followed with a long touchdown run to go up 10 with 2:43 left.

The Bulls were able to get another Bellenfant field goal on their next drive to make it a one score game. However, the Broncos were able to get just enough yardage on a fourth-down run, despite a valiant effort by linebacker Shaun Dolac, to ice the game.

Murdock led the defense with a career-high 16 tackles. Dolac finished with 11. Kobe Stewart had his team-best fifth sack in the game to go along with a fumble recovery.

HISTORY OF UB FOOTBALL

The year was 1894. Fourteen University at Buffalo medical students got together, bought uniforms and practiced after classes, splitting time at Brown's Riding Academy on East North Street and John's Riding Academy on East Utica. After honing their skills carefully, avoiding remnants of horses that grazed their practice pastures, they put on their blue jerseys, tight pants, and leather boots and stepped onto a baseball field on East Ferry Street to face Hobart College. As they kicked off to the visitors, no one among those first UB football players could have foreseen the journey they were embarking upon. They were not merely kicking a football, they were kicking off UB's quest for intercollegiate competition.

UB's football program began modestly when the University, then a private institution consisting of schools of dentistry, law, medicine and pharmacy, formed an athletic association. The athletic association in turn started the first football program. That first team was led by captain A. B. Stein who was joined by founding members J.B. Crofts, Irving Johnson, William Potter, Gray McCuthcheon, St. John Green and "Dinky" Johnson. During the first three years of its existence, the football team played squads from the University of Rochester and Hobart College and experienced little success, compiling a record of 0-2-4. Most importantly however, the team gained recognition from UB during this period when the University granted the team usage of an on-campus field for its home games.

UB football savored its first taste of success in 1897 when the team compiled a 7-0 record under manager E.J. Meyer and coach C.W. Dibble. Crowds began to flock to UB's home games, and in response the university moved many of the team's more popular contests to Civic Stadium in 1900.

The UB football bandwagon really gained momentum when the team played in an exhibition match at the 1901 Pan-American Exposition. UB played in front of a Chinese representative who "...did not understand much about the game, was delighted to see the sport." This high point was short-lived however, as UB was dealt a crushing 128-0 defeat by national powerhouse University of Michigan in what remains the worst defeat ever suffered by a UB squad. That loss seemingly was symbolic of the hard times to come as poor support and organization for the following two seasons forced UB's athletic association to cease football operations after the 1903 season.

Frank M. Pleasant awoke the hibernating UB football program in 1915 when he revitalized the program as the team's first full-time, professional head coach. UB adopted the Bison as its mascot that year and proceeded to a 3-3 record.

Art Powell took over the reins of the program in 1916, helping UB to improve with each season. UB football hit a peak in 1918 when the squad compiled a 3-1 record. The Bisons also enjoyed their most lopsided victory to date during the '18 campaign, an 81-0 defeat of Hobart.

The 1923 season brought many changes to UB's football program. James Batterson took over as head coach and the Bisons played their first game at Rotary Field, dedicated by the Rotary Club of Buffalo. Dr. James Ailinger, a standout basketball player for UB and a member of the 1922 football team, recalled UB's humble facilities on opening day at Rotary Field.

"The first season we played here we had to dress up in Hayes Hall and run to the field," said Ailinger. "In between there was a farm, so we had to run through potato and vegetable fields to reach the stadium. Only the end zone was marked. There were stones everywhere and the end zone on the side near the present medical school was six feet higher than the other side. Winning the toss was important because we could choose to play uphill or downhill."

UB struggled the first season in its new home, compiling a 1-5 record.

The six seasons that followed under head coaches James Bond (1923) and Russell Carrick (1924-28) were rather bleak as well. The Bisons did not have a winningseason over that period, tallying a record of 7-36-3. By 1929 it was quite evident that UB's football program desperately needed resuscitation once again. The man to jump start UB was head coach Jay "Biffy" Lee, former roommate at Notre Dame of legendary coach Knute Rockne. Some of Rockne's majestical motivation must have rubbed off as Lee led UB to a 5-2 record in what would be the Bisons only winning campaign in 16 seasons. Lee upgraded UB's schedule during the following two seasons and the Bisons' record suffered once again as they fell to squads from Fordham, Carnegie Tech, Dartmouth and the Notre Dame B team.

In 1931, the team changed its mascot to the Bull in order to distinguish UB from the professional teams in the Queen City.

Jim Peelle was hired as the 12th head coach in Bulls' history in 1936 with the burden of ending six consecutive losing campaigns. Peelle rejuvenated the program by notching five victories against three losses in his inaugural season. That success was short-lived however, as UB failed to post another winning season until 1942 when Peelle's squad went 6-2 once again with impressive victories over Hobart, St. Lawrence and Johns Hopkins.

UB heeded the call of its nation after the 1942 season by suspending all intercollegiate athletics due to the country's involvement in World War II. The Bulls returned to the field in 1946 and staged their second consecutive winning season for the first time since 1899. Civic Stadium became the home site for all UB home games in 1946, a relationship which lasted until 1954.

Frank Clair was hand-picked by Peelle to be his replacement in 1948. Clair extended UB's consecutive winning seasons mark to five during his two-year stint. The highlight of Clair's tenure was a 48-13 victory over the heavily-favored Louisville Cardinals.

The Canadian Football League lured Clair away in 1950 and UB Athletic Director Jim Peelle brought back a familiar face to lead the Bulls, former head coach James Wilson. Despite severe cutbacks in the football program's budget and mediocre seasons, the Bulls drew 26,126 fans to Civic Stadium, setting a single-game attendance record, in a 47-13 loss to Colgate.

In 1955, Clifford C. Furnas was named Chancellor of the University and instituted a five-year plan aimed at upgrading UB's athletic programs. Richard "Dick" Offenhamer was tabbed to lead the Bulls back to respectability and did so by posting a 4-4-1 record in his initial season. Fran Woidzik, a standout on the 1955 squad, went on to become the first Bull to be taken in the National Football League draft. Offenhamer's first season was a prelude of good things to come for the Bulls, as he would end his career with UB's best career winning percentage.

The year 1958 will forever be remembered as one of the greatest seasons in UB football history. On the strength of an 8-1 record that included victories over Harvard and Columbia, UB claimed the prestigious Lambert Cup, emblematic of Eastern small college supremacy. Team captains Nick Bottini and Lou Reale accepted the award on the Ed Sullivan Show on December 14 of that year before a national audience. The Bulls also earned an invitation to the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Florida but declined the offer to protest the discriminatory policies of the bowl's stadium, which refused to allow black athletes to compete on its field.

After posting an 8-1 record and finishing second in the Lambert Cup competition to Delaware in 1959, UB moved up to University Division status in 1960.

UB football made great strides in the early 1960s with stars like quarterback John "Long John" Stofa and defensive tackle Gerry Philbin. Stofa rewrote UB's passing records during his career while Philbin was named to the All-East team and played in the North-South and Coaches All-American post-season games. Both Stofa and Philbin would go on to play in the NFL following their UB careers.

UB reached another pinnacle in 1962, being recognized as "major" by the NCAA. UB also received attention in 1964 when its contest at Boston University was televised to a national audience.

Doc Urich handled UB's coaching duties for the 1966-68 seasons after Offenhamer stepped down. Urich guided UB to its finest season at the "major" level with a 7-3 record, losing only to Iowa State, Boston College and Villanova.

Bob Deming took over as head coach for the 1969 and '70 seasons and led the Bulls to wins over Boston College and Villanova in 1969. In 1970, ABC-TV regionally televised a 16-0 UB victory over Holy Cross at Rotary Field in the only game in UB history to be broadcast from Buffalo by a major network.

The black day in UB football history came in January of 1971 when due to expenses and the political climate on campus, football was dropped as a varsity sport.

In the fall of 1977, with the support of students, alumni and administration, UB restarted its football program with head coach Bill Dando at the reins. UB played four games in that first season, playing RIT to a 7-7 tie in its very first game back, the last tie in UB school history.

The Bulls built back to respectability quickly and did not have a losing season from 1980-1984, posting a 30-21 record.

In 1985, UB moved to the greener pastures of the Amherst Campus and the 4,000-seat UB Stadium. The Bulls defeated Villanova, 29-27, in Philadelphia in 1986 and once again talk of a possible upgrade of UB's program was alive.

New University President Steven Sample appealed to the Intercollegiate Athletics Board (IAB) in 1985 to upgrade UB to Division I-AA status. The IAB granted that request and after approval by the SUNY system in February of 1986, the "Run to Division I" had begun.

Former UB great Sam Sanders was hired in 1990 to replace Bill Dando and lead the Bulls from Division III and into the spotlight of Division I. After two rebuilding years under Sanders, the program took a hard hit when the head coach was forced to step down for medical reasons. Jim Ward, UB's offensive coordinator under Sanders, became the 20th head coach of the University at Buffalo's football program in 1992.

Under the direction of Athletic Director Nelson E. Townsend with the strong support of University President William R. Greiner, UB completed its "Run to Division I" on September 4, 1993, playing its first game at the Division I level in more than 20 years against the University of Maine. UB unveiled its $22 million, 16,500-seat UB Stadium on the Amherst Campus, site of the 1993 World University Games. In front of 14,179 fans, the Bulls put on quite a show, taking the lead with 51 seconds remaining in the contest. Maine spoiled UB's return, however, scoring a last-second touchdown to earn a 31-27 win.

In January of 1995, the Bulls came full circle when they hired UB alum Craig Cirbus ('80), who had spent the previous 11 years as an assistant under legendary coach Joe Paterno at Penn State.

A few months later, the Bulls wowed Western New York when they announced that they would be heading to Division I-A and the Mid-American Conference in 1999.

The 1996 season will go down as one of the finest in school history. The Bulls finished 8-3 on the season, earning the first Top 25 ranking in school history and earning Cirbus I-AA Independent National Coach of theYear honors. In addition, three Bulls (Ed Ellis, Craig Guest and Gerald Carlson) signed NFL contracts with Ellis being picked in the 4th round by the New England Patriots.

In 1999, UB rejoined the ranks of major college football with its entrance into the Mid-American Conference. The Bulls were back in the big-time for the first time in nearly 30 years.

The Bulls earned their first Division I-A victory in 30 years on September 23, 2000 when they nipped Bowling Green, 20-17, at UB Stadium. Buffalo would go on to defeat Kent State and finish 2-4 in the MAC East in 2000.

On November 30, 2000 Athletic Director Bob Arkeilpane announced the hiring of Jim Hofher as the 22nd head football coach in UB history. Hofher brought with him to Buffalo 22 years of Division I coaching experience, including stints as an assistant at Tennessee, Syracuse and North Carolina and eight years as head coach at Cornell University.

On December 16, 2005 Athletic Director Warde Manuel announced that Turner Gill, who was part of three national championships as a coach at the University of Nebraska and a Heisman Trophy finalist as a player, agreed to a five-year contract to become the 23rd head football coach at the University at Buffalo. In his first season with the Bulls, UB scored 220 points, the most by a Buffalo team since moving to I-A.

Buffalo had its most successful season since returning to the Division I-A ranks in 2007. The Bulls finished the year 5-7 overall and 5-3 in the Mid-American Conference for a share of the East Division regular season title. Turner Gill was named MAC Coach of the Year and a UB record eight players were named to the All-Conference Team. Junior quarterback Drew Willy completed a school-record 258 passes and had the highest pass efficiency rating in school history and sophomore running back James Starks became the Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher in the I-A era with 1,103 yards.

On December 5, 2008 the Bulls defeated 12th-ranked and undefeated Ball State to win the MAC Championship for the first time in school history.

The Bulls had an 8-6 record in 2008. The eight wins were the most in the Bulls' Division I-A era and one shy of the school record for wins in a season.

The 2008 season featured one of the most explosive offenses in school history. Gill, who handled the play calling, commanded an offense that scored a school-record 424 points. Quarterback Drew Willy threw for a school-record 3,304 yards and 25 touchdowns, running back James Starks ran for a school-record 1,333 yards and 16 touchdowns and wideout Naaman Roosevelt established school records of 104 receptions, 1,402 yards and 13 touchdowns.

The Bulls played in their first ever bowl game when they faced off against Connecticut in the 2009 International Bowl.

The Bulls finished 2009 season 5-7 and featured an offense that averaged 405 yards per game - the highest average in UB's Division I-A era. Numerous Bulls wrapped up record-breaking careers. Although he missed the entire season with a shoulder injury, Starks finished his career as the school record holder for rushing (3,140 yards) and rushing touchdowns (34). He was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the sixth round of the NFL Draft. Naaman Roosevelt set the school record for receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,551) and signed with the Buffalo Bills.

Jeff Quinn was hired as Buffalo's 24th head coach on December 22, 2010. Quinn has produced record-breaking offenses throughout his 27-year college coaching tenure and has won conference and national championships at his last three stops, including five conference crowns in the past eight seasons. He most recently spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Cincinnati.

In 2010, Davonte Shannon broke the school record for career tackles with 461 enroute to being named to the All-MAC First Team for the fourth straight year. He became just the fourth player in the history of the Mid-American Conference to earn that distinction. Cornerback Josh Thomas was selected in the fifth round (143rd pick) of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

in 2011, Branden Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns en route to earning first-team All-MAC honors. Chazz Anderson transfered from Cincinnati to play his final season at Buffalo. The UB signal caller threw for 2,454 yards and 11 touchdowns on the year. He set a single-game school record with 35 completions against Northern Illinois (10/22). Khalil Mack ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss with 20.5.

The Bulls had a strong finish to the 2012 campaign by winning three of the final four games. Using a plethora of running backs, the Bulls rushed for 2,120 yards - the third highest total in school history. Khalil Mack was named All-MAC First Team for the second straight year in a season in which he set the school record for career tackles for loss (56) and forced fumbles (11).

UB had one of its finest seasons as a Division I-A program in 2013. The Bulls went 8-5, including a 6-2 record in the MAC. It was their most MAC wins since joining the conference in 1999. UB advanced to the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for just its second ever bowl appearance in school history.

Branden Oliver finished his career as the Bulls all-time leading rusher with 4,409 yards. Alex Neutz broke the school record for career touchdown receptions with 31. And then there was Khalil Mack. The All-American linebacker broke the NCAA record for career forced fumbles with 16 and tied the NCAA mark for career takles for loss with 75. He went on to become the Bulls' highest drafted player in school history as he was picked fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Anthone Taylor rushed for 1,403 yards in 2014 - the second-highest single-season effort in school history. Lance Leipold was named the 25th UB football head coach on Dec. 1, 2014. Kristjan Sokoli was selected in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

The Bulls went 5-7 under first-year head coach Lance Leipold. Quarterback Joe Licata capped off his stellar career by setting nine different school passing records, including career passing yards (9,485) and career touchdown passes (76).

In 2016, Jordan Johnson rushed for over 1,000 yards on the season, including a then school-record 282 yards in a game vs. Akron. Linebacker Khalil Hodge finished the season with 123 tackles , just two shy of the FBS-era record for a single season.

The Bulls won the final three games of the 2017 season to finish 6-6 and earn bowl eligibility for just the third time in school history. In his first season at UB, junior wide receiver Anthony Johnson burst onto the scene with 76 catches for 1,356 yards and a school-record 14 touchdowns. Linebacker Khalil Hodge set an FBS-era record with 154 tackles on the year.

2018 was arguably the best season in the FBS era. The Bulls won a school-record 10 games, including a 7-1 mark in conference play - their best since joining the MAC in 1999. Buffalo played in the MAC Championship game for the second time in school history, dropping a 30-29 heartbreaker to Northern Illinois. UB played in its third bowl game in program history, falling to Troy, 42-32, in the Dollar General Bowl. Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year - the first time a UB player won the award.

Even with the departure of key personnel, the 2019 season proved to be a special one for the Bulls. UB finished with a record of 8-5 and finished the campaign by winning six if its last seven games, including a 31-9 victory over Charlotte in the Bahamas Bowl for the school's first bowl game victory. Sophomore running back Jaret Patterson set single-season school records with 1,799 yards rushing and 19 rushing touchdowns and paced a rushing attack that set a school record with 3,256 yards. A program-record 12 players were named to the All-MAC team.

The 2020 campaign was shortened due to the COVID-19 pandemic. However, once the season started in early November, the Bulls quickly established themselves as one of the best teams in the MAC. UB blazed through the regular season a perfect 5-0 and even made an appearance in the Top 25 for the first time in program history. The Bulls lost to Ball State in the MAC Championship game, but rebounded to win their second bowl game in as many years, defeating Marshall, 17-10, in the Camellia Bowl. Jaret Patterson was the story of the 2020 season. The junior running back rushed for 1,072 yards and 19 touchdowns in only six games. He led the nation in rushing average (178.7 ypg) and eclipsed 1,000 yards in his fifth game, tying the FBS record for earliest game to reach 1,000 yards. He was the MVP of the MAC and earned All-America honors.

Maurice Linguist was named the 26th head coach in program history on May 8, 2021. He led the Bulls to a 4-8 record in his first season. Running back Dylan McDuffie rushed for 1,049 yards and 11 touchdowns on the year.

The Bulls went 7-6 in 2022 and won their third bowl game in program history, a 23-21 victory over Georgia Southern in the Camellia Bowl. Safety Marcus Fuqua led the nation in interceptions with seven en route to becoming just the third player in program history to be named an AP All-American. Kicker Alex McNulty made a school record 24 field goals and was named MAC Special Teams Player of the Year.

Despite a 3-9 record in 2023, the Bulls did have some standout performances. Safety Devin Grant had three interceptions, including two pick-sixes against Central Michigan and was named the Bronko Nagurski Defensive Player of the Week.

Under first-year head coach Pete Lembo, the Bulls finished 9-4 and defeated Liberty in the Bahamas Bowl. One highlight of the nine-win campaign was a 23-20 overtime victory at #23 Northern Illinois for the program's second ever win over a ranked opponent. Linebacker Shaun Dolac had one of the finest seasons in program history, leading the nation in tackles with a school-record 168 en route to being named the MAC Defensive Player of the Year and the program's first Consensus All-American.

TORONTO, ONTARIO - The University at Buffalo's magical 2008 season was derailed by a powerful Connecticut team that was able to dominate both lines of scrimmage en route to a 38-20 win over the Bulls at the third annual International Bowl at Rogers Centre. The game was played in front of an International Bowl record 40,184 fans, of which roughly 30,000 were wearing the Royal Blue and White of the Bulls.

The Bulls late-season magic seemed to be ready to carry into 2009 when Buffalo used five UConn turnovers to race to a 20-10 first-half lead. However, the Huskies (8-5) scored the last 28 points of the game behind 261 yards by the nation's leading rusher, Donald Brown, to subdue the Bulls.

Buffalo (8-6) still had an opportunity to win in the game's final minutes, but a pass by senior quarterback Drew Willy was broken up in the end zone and returned 100 yards for a score by Dahan Deleston with 2:15 remaining. The loss did not dampen head coach Turner Gill's feelings about his team.

After falling behind to the Huskies, 10-3, early in the second quarter, the Bulls' late-season propensity for forcing turnovers showed itself again in a huge way, leading to Buffalo scoring on three straight possessions.

The Bulls first big break came when freshman punter Peter Fardon boomed a 54-yard punt that was mishandled by Jasper Howard into his own end zone where Buffalo freshman Ray Anthony Long fell on it for his first career touchdown. That tied the score 10-10 with 11:36 left in the half.

The very next possession, UConn quarterback Tyler Lorenzen was sacked by UB's Anel Montanez and Andrae Smith, with the ball coming loss and being recovered by defensive end Jerry Housey at the UConn 18-yard line.

The Bulls, however, had to settle for a 29-yard field goal by sophomore A.J. Principe that gave Buffalo its second lead at 13-10 with 8:22 left before half.

The magic continued on the ensuing kickoff, when UConn's Robbie Frey fumbled the kickoff into his endzone, was crunched by linebacker Justin Winters at the six-yard line and coughed up the ball, recovered by UB's John Syty at the Huskies four-yard line.

One play later, junior tailback James Starks ran over a Huskie defender at the one-yard line to put Buffalo up 20-10 – after the PAT – with 7:55 left in the second quarter.

In that incredible sequence, UB scored 17 points in 3:41 of game time while running four offensive plays.

The game's momentum, however, began to swing back to the Connecticut side late in the first half. That's when Brown, on a first-and-10 from the UConn 12-yard line, busted a 75-yard run to the UB 13-yard line. Lorenzen scored on the game's next play and cut the Buffalo lead to 20-17 at intermission.

For the remainder of the game, UConn's stout defense and outstanding offensive line would dominate, allowing the Huskies to rush for 358 yards in the game. The Bulls, meanwhile, would suffer through their worst offensive performance of the year. UConn held Starks to just 46 yards on 24 touches (13 carries, 11 receptions), while Willy finished 29-of-43 for 213 yards, but was held without a touchdown pass for just the second game this season.

Flanker Naaman Roosevelt capped an incredible campaign with eight receptions for 90 yards, becoming the first UB receiver to ever record 100 catches in a season – finishing just one away from the all-time MAC record with 104 catches for 1,402 yards – both easily UB school records.

The Bulls defense, which played valiantly by forcing four fumbles – was paced by sophomore Davonte Shannon who had 15 tackles – one for loss – including 10 solo stops and added his first career blocked kick. Winters added eight tackles and a forced fumble, while Montanez had three tackles, a half-sack, a two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

BOISE, ID – Playing in just its second bowl game in school history, the University at Buffalo football team lost to San Diego State, 49-24, in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl at Bronco Stadium on Saturday night. The Bulls end their season with an 8-5 record.

Buffalo, a team which prided itself on taking care of the football all season, turned the ball over three times in the game. The Aztecs capitalized by scoring 21 points off those turnovers.

San Diego State jumped out to a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter before the UB offense awoke. The Bulls drove 75 yards and cut the lead in half when Joe Licata connected with Branden Oliver on a 10-yard screen pass to make the score 14-7 with 7:51 left in the half. For a player who has had 33 rushing touchdowns over his career, it was surprisingly his first career receiving touchdown.

After the Bulls defense forced a San Diego State three-and-out on its ensuing possession, they were back in business. UB drove to the Aztec 27-yard line and a Patrick Clarke 38-yard field goal cut the lead to 14-10 with 4:01 left in the half.

However, the Aztecs scored on their next possession and then with just over a minute to play in the half came up with an interception off a tipped pass. Just one play later, they punched it into the endzone to take a 28-10 lead with 38 seconds left in the half. The way the end of the half transpired seemed to take the wind out of UB's sails.

Things didn't get better for the Bulls as they fumbled the opening kickoff of the second half and San Diego State quickly struck for another touchdown to take a 35-10 lead. The Aztecs extended their lead to 42-10 before the UB offense got on the board again. Licata connected with Alex Neutz on a 23-yard touchdown strike to cut the lead to 42-17 with 14:53 left in the game. Neutz finished his career with a school-record 31 touchdown receptions.

San Diego State running back Adam Muema was dominant in the game and his third touchdown of the day put San Diego State ahead, 49-17. Muema was the MVP of the game after rushing for 229 yards and three scores.

The Bulls scored their final touchdown of the game when Licata found Fred Lee from 10 yards out with just 36 seconds left to make the final score, 49-24.

After a slow start, Licata finished the game by throwing for 196 yards and three touchdowns. He finished the season with 23 touchdown passes, one shy of the school record of 24 set by Drew Willy in 2008.

Oliver was named the Player of the Game for Buffalo after rushing for 114 yards. It was his 20th career 100-yard game – seven more than any other player in school history. He finished his outstanding career rushing for a school-record 4,049 yards. He is just the 13th player in Mid-American Conference history to rush for over 4,000 yards.

Defensively, the Bulls were led by Adam Redden who had nine tackles, a sack and a forced fumble.

San Diego State ran most its plays away from All-American linebacker Khalil Mack as he was limited to six tackles. He did add a pass breakup and a fumble recovery. The loss brings an end to the storied career of Mack, arguably the greatest linebacker, if not player, in school history. He holds the NCAA record for career forced fumbles with 16 and tied the NCAA record for career tackles for loss with 75.

MOBILE, AL – The University at Buffalo football team uncharacteristically turned the ball over four times and it proved to be the difference in a 42-32 loss to Troy in the Dollar General Bowl held at Ladd-Peebles Stadium on Saturday night. The Trojans were able to score 14 points off turnovers and had possession of the ball for much of the second half.

It started out well for the Bulls as, like they had done many times this season, went right down and scored on their first possession of the game. After Antonio Nunn hauled in a deflected pass for a 51-yard gain, Jaret Patterson scored on an 11-yard touchdown run to give Buffalo a quick 7-0 lead.

Troy needed just three plays to tie the game, as Trojan quarterback Sawyer Smith hit a streaking Tray Eafford in stride for a 60-yard touchdown.

The Bulls mounted a 14-play, 96-yard drive, early in the second quarter, and Kevin Marks capped the drive with a 1-yard touchdown dive to give the Bulls a 14-7 lead with 11:06 left in the half.

After the Trojans tied the game at 14-14 with 6:15 left in the second quarter, the Bulls mounted a 10-play, 41-yard drive and Adam Mitcheson drilled a 41-yard field goal with 52 seconds left to give UB a 17-14 lead at the half.

The Trojans took the opening kick of the second half and kept their offense on the field for the entire third quarter. After mounting a 75-yard scoring touchdown drive on their first possession to take a 21-17 lead, Troy surprised the Bulls with an onside kick and got the ball right back. However, with the ball inside the UB 5-yard line and it looking like Troy was going to score again, James Patterson came up with a big hit to jar the ball loose from the Trojans quarterback. Safety Tyrone Hill scooped it up and dashed 93-yards for a touchdown to put the Bulls back up, 24-21.

However, a gassed UB defense remained on the field and Troy capitalized. The Trojans needed 12 plays to drive 69 yards and scored on a 2-yard touchdown pass to regain a 28-24 lead early in the fourth quarter. Following a 3-and-out by the Bulls, Troy struck again, connected on a 45-yard touchdown pass to build its lead to 35-24 with 11:25 left in the game.

The Bulls didn't give up. K.J. Osborn made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab to cut the deficit to 35-30. On the ensuing 2-point conversion try, Tyree Jackson scrambled, eluded rushers and found Nunn in the endzone for the conversion. The Bulls trailed 35-32 with 7:24 left in the game.

Following a Wesley Scott third-down sack, the Bulls got the ball back on their own 21-yard line with 3:28 left and trailing by three. However, on the first play of the drive, Jackson was sacked and fumbled the ball. It was recovered by Troy. On the very next play, the Trojans ran it in for a touchdown to extend their lead to 42-32.

Despite the loss, a number of Bulls finished the season by hitting significant milestones. Patterson rushed for 67 yards in the game to put him over 1,000 for the season. With 1,013 yards on the year, he became the first freshman running back in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

Anthony Johnson had 67 yards on five catches to go over 1,000 yards on the year. He became just the third player in school history to have two 1,000-yard seasons in a career.

Jackson threw for 274 yards in the game to put him over 3,000 for the season. He joined Drew Willy (2008) as just the second quarterback in school history to throw for 3,000 yards in a single season with 3,131.

NASSAU, BAHAMAS – History was made on Saturday afternoon as the University at Buffalo football team won the first bowl game in school history by defeating Charlotte, 31-9, in the Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl played at Thomas Robinson Stadium in Nassau, Bahamas

Sophomore running back Jaret Patterson was named the Offensive Most Valuable player after rushing for 173 yards and two touchdowns in the game.

While Patterson paced the offensive attack, it was the defense that shined in the Bahamas sun. Charlotte, one of top rushing teams in Conference USA, and 25th nationally, was limited to just 80 yards on the ground. Junior defensive end Malcolm Koonce was named the Defensive Most Valuable Player after tallying five tackles, two sacks and a forced fumble. He had two of UB's five sacks in the game.

The Bulls wasted little time getting on the board as they scored on their first possession. Kyle Vantrease connected with Antonio Nunn on a 12-yard fade pattern to give UB a 7-0 lead with 9:12 left in the first quarter.

Vantrease called his own number with a quarterback sneak, with three minutes left in the half, to give the Bulls a 14-0 lead.

Linebacker James Patterson made one of the biggest defensive plays of the game when he came up with an interception on Charlotte's first play of its ensuing possession. The Bulls were able to convert that into a 31-yard Alex McNulty field goal to take a 17-0 lead at the half.

Buffalo extended its lead to 24-0 on a 6-yard Patterson touchdown run, his first of the game, with 5:22 left in the third quarter.

Charlotte finally got on the board late in the third quarter on a 51-yard touchdown pass. Linebacker Matt Otwinowski sniffed out the 49ers' two-point conversion try to keep it a three-score game, 24-6.

After Charlotte kicked a field goal to make the score 24-9 with 10 minutes left in the game, the offense put together its most impressive drive of the game. The Bulls mounted a 16-play, 75-yard drive that took over nine minutes off the clock. Patterson put the game on ice with a 10-yard touchdown run with 1:43 left.

With a couple injuries on defense, reserve players had to step up. Junior cornerback Ali Abbas was one of those players as had a career-high nine tackles and a big pass breakup.

Seniors Joey Banks and Devon Russell finished their career on a high note with nine and seven tackles, respectively. Fellow senior Ledarius Mack's sack was the final play of the game.

MONTGOMERY, AL – Kevin Marks, Jr. scored on a 2-yard touchdown run with just over one minute to play and the defense withstood a late rally to lift the University at Buffalo football team to a 17-10 win over Marshall in the 2020 Camellia Bowl on Friday afternoon in Montgomery, AL. It was the second straight year the Bulls were victorious in a bowl game.

While the offense got the headlines all season, it was the UB defense that had its finest performance of the year to hold off the Thundering Herd. The Bulls held Marshall to 248 yards of total offense.

Marks was named the game's MVP after rushing for 138 yards and a touchdown in the game. The junior running back was effective early rushing for 117 yards in the first half. This against a Marshall squad that was ranked second in the nation in rushing defense.

The Bulls opened the scoring on a 1-yard touchdown run by Vantrease early in the second quarter. Alex McNulty added a 25-yard field goal with 5:33 left in the half to extend the UB lead to 10-0.

Marshall got a spark late in second quarter by scoring a touchdown with just 42 seconds on the clock to cut the UB lead to 10-7 at the half. The Thundering Herd came out and kicked a short field goal on their first possession of the second half and suddenly the game was tied, 10-10.

The score would remain tied until late in the contest. After Eric Black came up with a sack on third down, the Thundering Herd punted the ball back to the Bulls. UB started its game-winning drive at its own 12-yard line with 7:27 left on the clock.

The Bulls methodically marched down the field behind the arm of quarterback Kyle Vantrease. The junior signal-caller first connected with Jovany Ruiz to pick up a 3rd-and-7 at the UB 44. The key play on the drive was a 26-yard completion to Antonio Nunn, setting up the Bulls at the Marshall 18. After two short runs, the Bulls were faced with another third down. Vantrease threaded the needle to Nunn for a 12-yard completion and UB had the ball at the Marshall 1-yard line. Two plays later, Marks waltzed into the endzone for the game winning score.

On Marshall's ensuing possession, it drove all the way down to the UB 20. However, Kadofi Wright broke through the line for a sack. Two plays later, on fourth down, Black thwarted the comeback attempt with his second sack of the game.

James Patterson had a team-high nine tackles in the game and Cory Gross, Jr. finished with eight. Max Michel had the best game of his career, finishing with six tackles, a sack, 1.5 tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

Vantrease finished 16-of-27 for 140 yards. Ruiz, who was just awarded a scholarship the night before, was his favorite target. The Fredonia native finished with seven catches for 61 yards, both career highs. Nunn had four catches for 49 yards.

The Bulls finished the season 6-1 and bowl champions for the second straight season. It was the second bowl win in program history.

MONTGOMERY, AL – For the second time in three years, the University at Buffalo football team hoisted the Camellia Bowl trophy over its heads as bowl champions, defeating Georgia Southern, 23-21, at the Cramton Bowl on Tuesday afternoon. An undermanned Bulls squad had reserve players step up all day to help UB win its third bowl in program history.

Players like Clevester Hines, who before this week was a wide receiver, was forced to start at cornerback and finished with seven tackles and three pass breakups. He helped the Bulls slow down a pass-happy, high-powered Georgia Southern offense. On the offensive side of the ball, running back Tajay Ahmed was pressed into action due to injuries and responded by rushing for a career-high 98 yards and a touchdown.

While several new faces stepped up, the usual old reiables paced the Bulls, especially early. Wide receiver Justin Marshall had 11 catches for 127 yards, both career highs, and scored UB's first touchdown of the game enroute to being named the bowl's Most Valuable Player.

Marshall was the favorite target of quarterback Cole Snyder who threw for 265 yards and a score. He became just the third quarterback in program history to throw for 3,000 yards in a season. Snyder also connected with Quian Williams five times for 100 yards.

Buffalo took a 14-6 lead late in the first half on a short touchdown run by Ahmed.

Georgia Southern responded early in the second half by quickly tying the game on a long touchdown pass. However, the Bulls answered with consecutive Alex McNulty field goals to take a 20-14 lead into the fourth quarter.

Early in the fourth quarter, Dylan Powell came up with his first career interception to set up UB at the Georgia Southern 40-yard line. The Bulls were able to drive down the field and McNulty hit a chip shot to extend the UB lead to nine. It was McNulty's third field goal of the game and 49th of his career, breaking the program's all-time record.

The Eagles scored a touchdown, with 3:38 left, to cut the UB advantage to two points. However, the Bulls were able to get two key first downs and Georgia Southern never got the ball back.

Linebacker Shaun Dolac led the UB defense with 13 tackles and added a forced fumble that was recovered by Jalen McNair to set up a UB field goal. Fellow linebacker James Patterson, making his 56th and final career start for the Bulls, had eight tackles, including a tackle for loss.

It was the third straight bowl win for the Bulls after winning the 2019 Bahamas Bowl and 2020 Camellia Bowl.

NASSAU, BAHAMAS – It was a dominant performance by the University at Buffalo football team as they defeated Liberty, 26-7, to win the 2024 Bahamas Bowl at Thomas Robinson Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Linebacker Red Murdock led a UB defense that forced three Liberty turnovers and held the Flames to just a fourth-quarter touchdown. Murdock finished with a game-high 13 tackles, two forced fumbles and a pick six in the game and was named the Defensive Player of the Game.

Fellow linebacker Shaun Dolac, playing in his final game as a Bull, had nine tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss. He finished the season with a school-record 168 tackles.

Kicker Upton Bellenfant got the Bulls on the board early with three straight field goals to open the scoring. His first was a career-long and Bahamas Bowl-record 52-yarder on UB's opening possession. He followed with a 43-yard field goal and then a 20-yard field goal, on the first play of the second quarter, to give the Bulls a 9-0 lead. Bellenfant added a fourth field goal in the fourth quarter to set a Bahamas Bowl record.

Al-Jay Henderson broke loose for a 45-yard touchdown run early in the third quarter to put UB ahead, 16-0. Henderson, who was named the Offensive Player of the Game, finished with 119 yards rushing to put his season total over 1,000 yards. He became the 11th different player in program history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

Murdock iced the game with a pick-six early in the fourth quarter. He returned his first career interception for a 31-yard touchdown.

It was Buffalo's fourth straight bowl win and second Bahamas Bowl victory. The Bulls also won the 2019 Bahamas Bowl.

UB finished the year with a record of 9-4. It marked just the third time in program history the Bulls won nine games in a season. The Bulls ended the season on a five-game winning streak for the first time since 1959.

A DIFFERENT TIME IN A DIFFERENT WORLD

Looking back at one of the most influential football teams in University history 50 years later

By Alex Rubin and Stephen Marth

"Picture Buffalo as it is today…and then forget about all of the suburbs - they weren't there. The nightlife downtown, you had a big nightclub called the Town Casino, you had all of these theaters downtown, it was just so different than what exists today that you can't even imagine."

Stanley Kowalski, left guard for the 1958 Bulls football team, said the above reminiscing about his memories of the city of Buffalo. While this image of Buffalo remains dear to him, another issue clouds his memories – the scandal of the 1958 Tangerine Bowl.

The 1958 football season at the University at Buffalo was one of extreme highs and even more extreme lows; marked by an appearance on the Ed Sullivan show after an 8-1 season, sullied by racism and segregation.

After finishing the season as the Lambert Cup champions, Buffalo was invited to play in the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, FL. However, after accepting the invitation, University Chancellor Clifford Furnas, along with the entire team, made the decision to not play in the game; they learned that their two black players, Willie Evans and Mike Wilson, would not be allowed to play as per the request of the hosting school district.

In a statement made about his decision, Furnas said, "They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Being a member of the football team made Evans, the star running back for the team, a hot commodity around campus. The fact that he was one of very few minorities on campus made it tough for him at times.

"It was subtle. I didn't have the luxury of cutting class, because having made a little name for myself in athletics, professors knew who I was. Not to mention, I was usually the only black person in the class," Evans said.

One reason Kowalski believes there was not blatant racism within the team was that several players grew up without having relationships with minorities. Since there was no history of racism in their background, Kowalski believes it allowed the players to come in with open minds towards both Wilson and Evans.

"I grew up in a small mill town in Pennsylvania… we didn't have any blacks living there, so you didn't have prejudice built up ingrained in your head by your parents or your uncles," Kowalski said.

In the first game of the season, the Bulls were to face Harvard, one of the most respected teams in the nation at the time. Evans remembers this win being the first sign that the team could do something special.

"If you went back the year before, we were 5-4. I can remember vividly our coach saying before our last game versus Temple, he wanted us to win our last game so we could go in to the next season with a win, when we played Harvard," Evans said. "[Beating Harvard] got us off to a good start – it was a different feeling. We had no notion of winning the Lambert Cup, we didn't even know about it. We just wanted to win football games."

According to Kowalski, the Bulls were in a unique position due to the fact that they were the only team in or near Buffalo. This gathered media attention.

"Most of the teams that played football after the Second World War had already dropped it," Kowalski said. "We were the only game in town and the papers started to give us all kinds of press, which was kind of unique."

"It was a big deal for Buffalo at the time," Evans concurred. "Blacks weren't included in the paper at all for any reason, yet we were on the front page. When we were coming back from Harvard, the pilot told us that there were a couple thousand students waiting for us at the airport. It was great support."

It was not a coincidence that the Bulls were peaking in 1958; the senior class was the first class to play all four years on scholarship, meaning the team was as cohesive as ever and also had as much talent as possible. While Kowalski understands that football has changed immensely in the past 50 years, he is proud of the accomplishments the team made, and how they stuck together in the face of adversity that followed the end of the regular season.

"We stand very high, simply because of the celebrity that was given to us, that opportunity that we had to make a mark…we were the first team to go into the UB Hall of Fame," Kowalski said. "Obviously the whole game of football has changed so dramatically…we couldn't compare to the teams that are put on the field today, but at that time, we were a very respectable team."

In the final game of the regular season, the Bulls defeated Bucknell 38-0 to earn their first Lambert Cup. This game was especially important for Kowalski, who played in front of friends, family and his old high school football coach. Kowalski did not disappoint, returning an interception for a touchdown en route to Buffalo's victory.

"They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

After the victory, Buffalo's co-captains Nicholas Bottini and Louis Reale appeared on the Ed Sullivan show to accept the Lambert Cup, a trophy for the top team of the "Eastern Small Colleges."

Along with the victory came an invite to the Tangerine Bowl. When news broke about the Bulls being invited to their first bowl game, the team was skeptical, as it would have meant missing a week of classes and work. Several players on the team were married and needed to continue to work to support their family. After much debate however, the team decided to accept the invite.

The decision was quickly changed when Buffalo was informed that if the team was to play, they would have to do so without Evans or Wilson, who were both black.

"Our initial feelings were good. We never even thought about playing in a bowl game. The issue of race didn't even come up in the beginning," Evans said. "The only thing I recall is the first meeting we had where we decided we wanted to go as a team. I found out (about the racism issue) as I walked out of the house after Thanksgiving, and a neighbor said to me 'I guess they don't want you black boys down there…' I got the newspaper and there was my picture on the front page of the Courier Express with Mike Wilson, outlining the position Chancellor Furnas took on the issue, where if myself and Mike couldn't play, UB would not take part in the contest."

The field that had been rented for the game belonged to an Orlando school district that had a strict rule that blacks and whites could not play on the field at the same time, the team discovered. In response, the Bulls held a second meeting where they decided not to play in the game if Evans and Wilson would not be allowed to play. While the Elks Club, the sponsor of the game, offered to find another field, Chancellor Furnas was the man charged with making the ultimate decision.

"Chancellor Furnas was a prominent individual… his credentials were impeccable," Kowalski said. "He was a physicist. He was an Olympic sprinter. He was the assistant secretary of defense for research and development in the Eisenhower administration… there wasn't anybody capable of criticizing him. The way he put it was he would not demean any of his players, or even present an opportunity for anyone to be uncomfortable in the Florida setting."

As the image of Buffalo's first bowl came and went, Evans carried the experience of racism with him after college. It followed him to the professional level, as he entered the American Football League. Evans had never visited any of the southern states.

"I had a chip on my shoulder from the experience. It was a matter of letting it beat you down or not. I saw it as an opportunity to show my athleticism. I eventually was drafted by the Buffalo Bills, which was also an experience. It was my first time playing with white ball players from the South. There were players I never spoke to, and they never spoke to me, yet we were 'teammates.' That hardened my attitude about the idea of racism. Our coach was from the South, and I didn't appreciate being called 'boy.' He called everybody 'boy.' I ended up getting released right before the season began, but I wasn't too upset about it."

Since his playing days, Evans has remained active in the University community, holding several positions on the Alumni board and serving on the committees that brought both Athletic Director Warde Manuel and President Simpson to Buffalo.

"One reason why I'm still with the university is the way things have come," Evans said. "Diversity is something that has caught on with the campus. We're not there yet, but it has improved significantly since I was here. There are expectations that exist now that were not around when I was a student."

UB Turns Down Bid To Tangerine Bowl

By RAY RYAN

The University of Buffalo, unswervingly loyal to two of its players, last night turned down an invitation to play its first bowl football game—the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla., on Dec. 27.

The issue was discrimination. Two of Buffalo's players are Negroes. Willie Evans, a left halfback, led the Bulls in rushing yardage during their highly successful 8-1 season. Mike Wilson is a reserve end.

The fault did not lie with the Tangerine Bowl committee or its chairman, Jack Morgan, or the Orlando Elks Club, which promotes the game for the benefit of crippled children.

The committee tendered the bid on Monday, Nov. 24, with the full knowledge that Buffalo has two Negro players. Subsequently, the committee approached the Orlando High School Athletic Assn., which controls the stadium which is the site of the game, with a request it be allowed to rent the stadium.

At the same time, the committee requested that the Athletic Assn. waive a clause in the standard contract which stipulates there be no intermingling of the races in athletic contests in the stadium. This request was refused.

The Tangerine Bowl committee voted—10-4 to 4—in favor of Buffalo coming to Orlando, even in view of this development. These men wanted to see Buffalo play football.

But the only other possible playing site in Orlando is a practice field around which 3,000 or 4,000 bleacher seats could be installed.

Morgan said that, if Buffalo desired to make the trip, the Elks would guarantee there would be no discrimination. Although the Elks undoubtedly would take a tremendous financial loss (the Tangerine Bowl seats 13,500), they stood ready to live up to every financial term contained in the bid to the Buffalo athletic director, Jim Peelle, last Monday.

Dr. Clifford C. Furnas, chancellor of the University of Buffalo, was informed of the Orlando High School Athletic Solomon Jackson, who played for the Bulls in 2014 and 2015, passed away unexpectedly following an offseason workout on February 29, 2016. Respected and beloved by his teammates, Jackson played both linebacker and defensive end over his career.

In addition to the slogan ALL41 prominently displayed throughout the Murchie Family Football Center to honor his legacy, Jackson's #41 has been worn by a different player each game to honor the his legacy.

In 2016 and 2017, players were chosen by the coaching staff to wear "41" for the entire year. Cornerback Boise Ross wore it for the 2016 season, while linebacker Jarrett Franklin wore it in 2017.

Since 2018, the coaching staff has rotated #41 on a weekly basis honoring players who have embodied Jackson's work ethic and character.

Here is a list of every player who has worn #41.
